

Dorothy Canfield Fisher	The Bent Twig By Dorothy Canfield Fisher (1879-1958) Semi-autobiographical series of incidents in the life of an intellectual American family in the late 19th - early 20th Century as seen by favored daughter, Sylvia Marshall. Her father is an economics professor in a Midwestern state university and she is following in his inquisitive footsteps. Canfield writes this in a matter-of-fact manner with Tarkingtonesque good humor. (Summary by BellonaTimes) Read by Bellona Times; total running time: 18:14:02.
